

LEGION ORATORS ATTACK KNOX PEACE RESOLUTION

Propagandists for Irish Cause
Also Rapped By World
War Veterans

Lexington, Ky., May 20.—Cynthia, Williamstown and Covington were being visited by the American Legion "barnstormers" Tuesday, who yesterday made such an impression on audiences in Lexington, Shelbyville, Frankfort and Georgetown with attacks upon the Knox peace resolution and propagandists for the Irish cause who place Ireland above America.

Dan S. Hollings, Indianapolis, regarded as the personal representative of National Commander Fred W. Galbraith in his speeches pointedly called attention to the Knox resolution, indicating it to be the national policy of the legion to fight it. He urged Kentucky posts to be outspoken against any encroachment by Irish agitators beyond the definition of Americanism fixed by the legion, pointing out that the Legionnaires have no antipathy toward members of the Irish race, but referring to the action of the Mayor of Milwaukee in hoisting an Irish republican flag on the City Hall of that city and calling such an act by a public servant to a parallel of the worst kind of pro-Germanism during the World War.

Stephen S. Jones, State Adjutant, at Lexington made another onslaught upon the Knox peace resolution, saying the legion never will countenance "such a shameful desertion of the people with whom we are allied." Emmet O'Neal, national executive committeeman, and Maurice K. Gordon, State commander, urged support of candidates for the Legislature pledged to uphold the anti-secession law. Ulic Bell, State committeeman, urged a fight on the influx of immigrants at the expiration of the fourteen months' exclusion period.

Attorney General Daugherty and his "pink tea" with Eugene Debs, Bolsheviks, and the like came in for a scoring by the speakers.

ANOTHER OHIO COUNTIAN RAPIDLY ADVANCING

The Hartford Herald.

Hartford, Ky.,
My dear Editor:—After having not heard from you for some time I am showing up in this city, to which I come from Wheeling, W. Va., after resigning as teacher of banking, economics, commercial law, accountancy and related subjects, in The Elliott Commercial School, to accept a splendid position with the Federal Board for Vocational Education, Washington, D. C.

My official position will be at Cincinnati on May 21 and being so situated I hope to be of much aid to the Ohio County, as well as all disabled ex-service men of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio in securing aid under the Federal Board Act.

Please accept my best wishes for you and the Herald.

Very respectfully yours,
CLARENCE JAMES.

THREE PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM NEWPORT JAIL

Newport, Ky., May 19.—Three prisoners who were awaiting grand jury action sawed their way out of the Newport jail early this morning. They were Daniel Carter, Cynthia, Ky., alleged burglar; Harry Vickers, Covington, charged with having carried a concealed weapon, and R. W. Suttles recently returned from Toledo Ohio to face trial for the alleged unlawful conversion of money.

The trio sawed bars from a window and dropped thirty feet to the ground.

Suttles later was found crouching near the jail in agony. He had sustained a fracture of his left leg. The others escaped.

THIEF STEALS PURSE FROM VETERAN'S SACK

Lexington, Ky., May 19.—Police were searching for a thief who removed a sock from the foot of John T. Jones, a Confederate veteran residing at the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, and took a purse containing $7 and replaced the sock. The veteran was visiting at a boarding house on North Limestone street and had put his purse in the bottom of a sock which he placed on his foot. When he awakened the purse was gone but the sock was on his foot.

Fines and taxes paid. 2,331.05

THE SCANDAL SHEETS

(Jerry Owen in Oregon Voter)
Each morn we sneak out on the porch
To grab the daylight news,
Expecting to obtain some dope
Upon the nation's views,
And how the crops are in Slam,
What ruler has been mobbed,
And scan the score
The day before
And see whose bank was robbed.

But flaring headlines greet our gaze
Across the printed sheet,
And we must mix the grass details
Up with our pearls of wheat,
And read how Mr. Millionbeans
Conducts his tour de force
And testified
And swore and lied
To rig him a divorce.

At dusk we light a calabash
And seek our inglenook,
And through the evening blatter we
Would have a peaceful look.
To learn what all the news agents
write
And happenings portray,
What flags new furlied,
What bombs were hurled,
And who's at war today.

But there is Mr. Billionbeans,
Who took his solemn oath,
That papa's pet stayed out all night,
But still she loves them both;
The sordid stories drool along
Full of domestic woe;
The lawyers roar,
The judges snore,
But still reporters go.

We'd like just once to pick a sheet
Without these tiresome tales
Of rich and careless gentlemen,
Who bore us with their walls;
Why can't the scribes find something nice
To cram the radio,
And can these yarns
That reek of barns,
And make our head ache so?

FARMERS TO VOTE ON CONGRESS BILLS

Chicago, May 17.—A referendum covering fifteen questions of an agricultural nature pending consideration in Congress will be voted on by the 2,000,000 members of the American Farm Bureau Federation, it was announced by that organization.

The principal questions to be voted upon include:
"Do you favor legislation on making short selling of farm products illegal?"
"Do you favor putting the packing industry under Government regulation?"
"Are you in favor of continuing the excess profits tax?"
"Do you favor the submission to the States of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the issuance of exempt securities?"

Other propositions to be submitted to county and township caucuses throughout the country, federation officers said, include proposals to establish a rural credits system; enactment of truth-in-fabrics legislation, and granting of authority to Federal reserve banks to give priority to loans for basis production of all kinds.

DITCH LETTING

Roy Muffett, et al.,
vs.—Advertisement of Letting of Contract.
Petition for Public Ditch.

The undersigned Board of Drainage Commissioners of Ohio County, Kentucky, will on Monday, the 8th day of June, 1921, at 1 o'clock, p. m., at the Court House door in Hartford, Ohio County, Kentucky, let to the lowest and best bidder, at public outcry, the contract for the construction of a public ditch or drain in said County, known as the Roy Muffett, et al., Ditch, the main ditch beginning at a stake at the mouth of what is known as the Railroad cut-off of Adam's Fork Creek, at the corner between E. M. Miles' Heirs, W. H. Evans and W. P. Smith, and running in a generally southwestern direction to Station 341 plus 35 on the land of the James Wimsatt Heirs, being a point at low water mark on Rough River, making a total distance of the ditch proper of 34,135 feet; and in addition the following laterals or arms, viz: News Creek Arm: Beginning at a stake on News Creek at the end of a ditch or drain running north through the lands of J. H. Whittinghill's Heirs and running in a westward course 3,585 feet to a point on the main ditch 20 feet north of the center of Adam's Fork Creek; Arm North of Fordsville and Barrett's Ferry Road: Beginning at a stake on the east side of the Fordsville and Barrett's Ferry road thence a south course 810 feet to Station 48 plus 44 on the main ditch; Carden and Smith Arm: Beginning at stake in the road from Fordsville and Barrett's Ferry road to the Fordsville and Shreve road, thence a northwest course 1,395.5 feet to Station 48 plus 44 on the main ditch; North Fork of Adam's Fork Arm: Beginning at the iron bridge across the Fordsville and Dundee road and in the North Fork of Adam's Fork, thence a south course 12,311 feet to Station 98 plus 07.5 on the main ditch; Board's Switch Arm: Beginning at a stake in Adam's Fork Creek, thence a west course 5,512.9 feet to a stake on the main ditch 8.5 feet west of Station 140 plus 31; Smith's Creek Arm: Beginning at Station 60 plus 26 on Smith's Creek where the L. & N. Railroad crosses it, thence a southeast course, 1,470.7 feet to Station 162 on the main ditch. Stevens' Creek Arm: Beginning at a stake on the lands of R. I. Miller, thence an east course 781 feet to Station 177 plus 86.8 on the main ditch.

Excavations shown by the Engineer's Report as follows: Main Ditch, 258,052.53 cubic yards; News' Creek Arm, 10,205.45 cubic yards; Board's Switch Arm, 10,496.46 cubic yards; North Fork of Adam's Fork Arm, 32,597.54 cubic yards; Smith's Creek Arm, 4,917.7 cubic yards; F and B. F. Road Arm 993.01 cubic yards; Smith and Carden Arm, 2,079.22 cubic yards; Stevens' Creek Arm, 2,361.4 cubic yards. The total excavation required is estimated at 321,703.31 cubic yards and the total estimated cost of construction is $64,340.66. Said construction work is to be done according to the plans and specifications prepared by the Engineer in charge, which have been approved by the judgment of the Ohio County Court in above styled case and now on file in the Clerk's Office of said County, and is to be under the general supervision of said Engineer, John B. Wilson, heretofore selected by the Board. Construction of said ditch must be completed on or before April 1, 1922.

Bond with approved security will be required as soon as bid is accepted. The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to let the contract for said work in sections or as a whole, as they may see fit.

This May 17, 1921.

THREE MEN DROWN IN KENTUCKY RIVER

Jackson, Ky., May 20.—Three men were drowned while crossing the Kentucky River in a small boat at Chavies, Breathitt County. Several others fell into the water but were saved. The dead are William Collins, W. A. Neace and J. N. Mullins, all married. The bodies of Neace and Collins have been found. A large party of men is dragging the river for Mullins' body. The men were said to have been returning from a party at a neighbor's house and too many men crowded into the boat.
